

Saved!

It Could Have Looked Like This

The Academy in 1997

The Academy Today

Turn of the Century Photo

The Schoolhouse in the early 1900's

Home of the Clarkson Schoolhouse

December, 1947

From the 1950's – Some Alums

Paying the 1st Year's Rent at the signing of the Lease

Partners in Historic Preservation Church, School House & Town

So Neglected

The Winter of 2003

A Tilting Belltower & A Hole In the Roof!

Day One of the Restoration

It's Really Happening!

Closeup of Steel Beam

New Steel & Wood Beams

The Last “Students”

After the 30 Year “Sit-in”

All Cleared Out

Louver from Belltower

New Wood on Belltower

What a Difference

The Old School Bell

Reinforcement

Half of the StormWindows are In

Getting Started on Wood Trim

Rotten Wood

Working on the Trim on Back

Rehabbing an Old Sash

Lower Window Sash

Working in the Schoolhouse

Painting Underway

The Old Furnace

The Old Furnace Room

An Old Pot Bellied Stove

Tin Ceiling Tile

Different Colors Revealed

Stenciling on Second Floor

New Lighting Installed

Going Up to Second Floor

What Water Can Do

Ceiling Catastrophe

Don & Mark at Work

Old Plaster on 2nd Floor

Cracked Plaster

Water Undermined the Ceiling

Second Floor Mess

Another View of Second Floor

Talk about Debris!

The Upstairs is Looking Better, but...

Staircase Restored

Original Table

The Old Floor Restored

New Gas & Electric Lines

Water Table Repair

Replacing Bricks

The Upstairs Restored

The First Floor Today

An Original Blackboard

August Celebration

The Erie Canal String Band

Past Presidents & VP

Don with Resolution

Don & Reta

Senator Joe Robach, Don & Representative Steve Hawley

August 1, 2012 - Upstairs

1st Time Academy Rented Out

Pulling the old School Bell Rope

Fire Escape Needs Painting

2013 – It's All Done, even the Academy "Facilities"

An Architectural Gem

