

Tales and Hauntings...Under the Apple Tree!

Friday – March 24th. from 8:00-10:00 pm.

$40.00 per person (10 person max)

As the veil between the living and the dead thins, the spirits of the Bushnell House once again roam through the rooms they once called home. Are you ready to meet Elvira, Walter, Henry and the host of others that gather in this historic 1830s house? Death and sadness were regular visitors to the Bushnell's, who chose not to leave when their time on earth was done? Led by Paranormal Investigator and Local Historian and Author, Patti Giglio.

Register by calling 585.431.3449 with your credit card information, or you can stop in to register, Friday and Saturday from 10:00-5:00 or Sunday from 11:00-4:00.
